A cold-	libian blooded animal that can live in water and on land. It lays eggs in Frogs and toads are amphibians.
	rd covering of a tree.
bird
Cold-bl weathe	blooded ooded animals cannot make their own body heat. They use the r to change their temperature, such as lying in the sunshine to hemselves up.
conk e The shi	e r ny brown nut of a horse chestnut tree.
	uous hat loses its leaves in autumn and grows new leaves in spring. Oak e deciduous.
	onment where animals, plants and people live.
everg A tree t	reen hat has green leaves for the whole year. Fir trees are evergreens.
	blooded animal that lives in water and is covered with scales. Fish s to breathe. Most fish lay their eggs in water.
-	e, green part of a plant that joins to a stem or branch at one end. make food for the plant.

mammal A warm-blooded anin live young and feed th	nal that has hair. All female mammals give birth to nem milk.
natural Found in nature and r	not made by people.
petals	a flower that attract insects.
Snakes and turtles are	·
tree	oranches and a wooden trunk.
	els make their own body heat. They stay the same er if the weather is hot or cold.